All claims and Defendants have been dismissed, except for Plaintiff’s failure-to-protect claims against Defendants J. Perdroza, S. Sovoie, and D. Mendez based on his allegations that these Defendants labeled him a “snitch.”

² See, e.g., United States v. W.R. Grace, 526 F.3d 499, 508-09 (9th Cir. 2008) (“We begin with the principle that the district court is charged with effectuating the speedy and orderly administration of justice. There

2 Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that:

3 1. Each party has sixty days from the date of service of this order to serve opposing

5 and/or evidence that they have in their possession, custody, or control, to the 6 extent the parties have not already done so:⁴

7 a. Documents regarding exhaustion of Plaintiff's claims, including 602s,

11 b. Witness statements and evidence that were generated from 12 investigation(s) related to the event(s) at issue in the complaint, such as 13 an investigation stemming from the processing of Plaintiff's 14 grievance(s).⁵

15 c. All of Plaintiff's medical records, if any, related to the incident(s) and/or

19 is universal acceptance in the federal courts that, in carrying out this mandate, a district court has the authority to 20 enter pretrial case management and discovery orders designed to ensure that the relevant issues to be tried are 21 identified, that the parties have an opportunity to engage in appropriate discovery and that the parties are 22 adequately and timely prepared so that the trial can proceed efficiently and intelligibly.”).

23 ³ Advisory Committee Notes to 1993 Amendment to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure regarding Rule 24 26(a) (“The enumeration in Rule 26(a) of items to be disclosed does not prevent a court from requiring by order or 25 local rule that the parties disclose additional information without a discovery request.”).

26 ⁴ Defense counsel is requested to obtain these documents from Plaintiff's institution(s) of confinement. If 27 defense counsel is unable to do so, defense counsel should inform Plaintiff that a third party subpoena is required.

28 ⁵ See Woodford v. Ngo, 548 U.S. 81, 94-95 (2006) (“[P]roper exhaustion improves the quality of those 29 prisoner suits that are eventually filed because proper exhaustion often results in the creation of an administrative record that is helpful to the court. When a grievance is filed shortly after the event giving rise to the grievance, witnesses can be identified and questioned while memories are still fresh, and evidence can be gathered and preserved.”).

30 The Court notes that Defendant(s) only need to produce documents such as a Confidential Appeal Inquiry
31 or a Use of Force Critique to the extent those documents contain witness statements related to the incident(s) 32 alleged in the complaint and/or evidence related to the incident(s) alleged in the complaint that will not be 33 provided to Plaintiff separately.

1 Plaintiff taken following the incident(s).⁶

5 3. Parties do not need to produce documents or evidence that they have already 6 produced.

7 4. Parties do not need to produce documents or evidence that were provided to 8 them by the opposing party.

9 5. Parties may object to producing any of the above-listed documents and/or 10 evidence. Objections shall be filed with the Court and served on all other parties 11 within sixty days from the date of service of this order (or within thirty days of 12 receiving additional documents and/or evidence). The objection should include 13 the basis for not providing the documents and/or evidence. If Defendant(s) 14 object based on the official information privilege, Defendant(s) shall follow the 15 procedures described in the Court's scheduling order. If a party files an 16 objection, all other parties have fourteen days from the date the objection is filed 17 to file a response. If any party files a response to an objection, the Court will 18 issue a ruling on the objection.
